MANCHK1N is an independent hip-hop/rap artist who combines a modern trap sound with atmospheric melodies and experimental beats. His work is dominated by themes of street culture, personal experiences, inner struggle, and the pursuit of self-expression. His music is characterized by dense bass, minimalist arrangements, and a distinctive performance style.

MANCHK1N's first official releases came in 2021. Early works include the singles "Ama TAYSTI," "To Chto Suka Hochet," "Che Guevara," and "BABKI." He later released the tracks "Letaem" (2022) and "Loop" (2023), and in 2024, he released the EP Streatwear, featuring tracks by Maski, Evil League, Full Dead, Style, and Intro. In 2025, the discography expanded with the album "SO HIGH" and the singles "Step" and "GOD BLESS."

Today, MANCHK1N is featured on major streaming services, including Apple Music, Shazam, and other music platforms. However, detailed biographical information—including their real name, country of origin, date of birth, or project history—has not been published in public sources.
